H.Upmann Magnum 46

£27.60

Size: 5 5/8 Inches x 46 Ring Gauge.

The founder of this brand was a German banker called Herman Upmann who so loved Cuban cigars that he moved to Havana in 1844 and set up both as banker and cigar maker. For over 150 years Upmann has been famous for the exemplary balance offered by the blend of its light to medium bodied cigars. The Magnum 46 was first introduced in 2008 with a heavier girth allowing for the smoke to cool on the palate for maximum enjoyment.

Cohiba Medio Siglo

£39.20

Size: 4 Inches x 52 Ring Gauge.

Cohiba is the flagship brand of all Havana cigars. Created in 1966 for President Fidel Castro himself the tobacco selected for Cohiba is the “selection of the selection” from the five finest plantations in the San Juan y Martinez and San Luis Districts of the Vuelta Abajo zone and is perfectly demonstrated in this cigar.

The name Cohiba is an ancient Taino Indian word for the bunches of tobacco leaves that Columbus first saw being smoked by the original inhabitants of Cuba – the earliest known form of the cigar. As part of Cohiba’s 50th Anniversary this brand-new size was launched demonstrating constant innovation to keep this brand at the leading edge of the cigar world. Cohiba – the world’s finest cigar!

Romeo Y Julieta Petit Royales

£19.70

Size: 3 3/4 Inches x 47 Ring Gauge.

The brand, with its origins dating back to 1875, was named after Shakespeare’s tragic lovers. It was a firm favourite of the Torcedores (rollers) and was read to them whilst they worked in the factories. Winston Churchill became a devotee of the brand after a visit to Havana in 1946. Sharing the same ring gauge (width) as the famous RyJ Churchill cigar, the Petit Royale is one of the new short length format cigars making it far bigger and more rewarding than it first may appear. The impressive ring gauge allows for more of the delicate flavours to be recognised.

Quintero Favoritos

£17.80

Size: 4 1/2 Inches x 50 Ring Gauge.

One of the few Havana brands not born in Cuba’s capital city. Instead, its founder Agustin Quintero with his four Brothers set up a shop in the south coast city of Cienfuegos, known as the “Pearl of the South”.

The Favoritos has the same ring gauge as a Robusto which allows for the smoke to cool on the palate. The flavours are smooth and well rounded.

Montecristo Open J

£17.20

Size: 4 3/8 Inches x 38 Ring Gauge.

Montecristo is quite simply the best selling, most popular handmade cigar brand in the world! The name comes from Alexandre Dumas’ famous novel “The Count of Montecristo”, which was read to the cigar rollers in the factory where the brand was first produced in 1935.

In 2009 the brand launched a new Series, Montecristo Open, consisting of four sizes. The Open J is the smallest of the four but is still packed full of classic Montecristo zing and rich aroma. A great partner for outdoor pursuits.

Partagas Serie D No. 4

£29.10

Size: 4 7/8 Inches x 50 Ring Gauge.

If there is one particularly famous cigar factory in Havana, it is Partagas.

It can still be found at 520 Industria Street where it has been home to this iconic brand since it was opened in 1845 by Don Jaime Partagas. Immediately recognisable by its deep, earthy and spicy flavours.

This cigar is full flavoured and is rich and complex with every puff.

Sip, do not gulp!
